Its position makes this property particularly interesting both for those looking for a practical home in the centre of San Remo and for buyers seeking a property with good rental potential.

This appealing apartment for sale in San Remo is situated on the first and top floor of a small building, built in 1912, with only 4 residential units and no condominium fees. This is an important advantage, especially for those considering the purchase as a low maintenance investment for holiday rentals or short term stays.

The property is in very good condition and includes an entrance into the kitchen and dining area, a living room with sofa beds, a double bedroom, a bathroom with window and a balcony.
